Date of Birth

Marital Status      Married     Single

Religion/denomination

Studies and experience

Do you intend to become a minister of religion

after completion of your studies?      Yes       No       Undecided

Please indicate your reasons for wishing to go to the Holy Land and state briefly how you would spend your time there, outlining the aims you hope to achieve. e.g. course of study or general visit

Tell us why we should select you.

FINANCE

Note on probable costs:-

Air fares	£ 600.00
Accommodation	£ 1,250.00
Local Travel	£ 150.00
"Pocket money" and emergency	£ 250.00
Probable cost of 4 week stay	£2,250.00

The grant of £1,500, based on past experience, will be insufficient by itself to sustain four weeks' study in Israel. See note on probable costs over. There will be a shortfall between the grant income and the probable expenditure.

Faculties are known to have additional grants to students for such travel and experience.

Would you be prepared to make such an application? Yes  No

Please supply details of two referees:

CONDITIONS

- If successful in your application, you will be required to join the Society either as a Life or Annual Member at the current rate of subscription (Life £50, Annual £10).
- The Church of Scotland's St Andrew's Guesthouse is available at discounted rates for the scholar. Unless there are valid reasons for staying elsewhere, you will be required to use this accommodation.
- You should contact the Minister of St Andrew's Jerusalem once the scholarship has been awarded, in order to start planning your visit.
- You will be required to attend Sunday services in St Andrew's and become involved in the life of the church/guesthouse; staff will offer guidance as to how to achieve this.
- You will be expected to carry out the aim of your scholarship conscientiously and to submit a written report to the Society on your return to the UK. (This may be the same report as may be required by your university.)
- You should be prepared to attend the Society's AGM on the years before and after your visit.

If selected, I agree to abide by the Conditions of the Scholarship which I have read and understand.
